A letter from the editor:

Happy Fall Everyone!

We recently had a board/planning committee meeting where we found out about some super exciting developments and changes that will take place next summer at our 2020 conference.

First of all, we are going paperless!!! This means that we will have our own conference app that will assist everyone in navigating the event as well as making it so much easier to leave feedback concerning the speakers and presentations. This is a definite upgrade from the cumbersome books that we have used in the past. All conference information, including any changes, will be pushed out in real time which will lessen attendee confusion. Also, the app chosen by the committee is extremely “user friendly.” Therefore, there is no need to worry about it being too complex to navigate.

The committee received great feedback from last summer’s conference participants and have looked closely at all the information. Based on that information, it seems that you are requesting sessions addressing more content area information as it applies to daily instruction, especially in the areas of ESL and Math. Based on this and other feedback:

* We will no longer have Category meetings as a break out session. Instead, we will be holding Content Roundtables so that all members in a specific category are represented at the round table to discuss important information and answer any questions attendees might have.

* We need your help! Obviously, every program has remarkable people with amazing ideas/strategies to share with other MAACCE members. Therefore, we are offering 2 MAACCE conference scholarships for teachers who are willing to present at least 2 breakout sessions in the areas of math, reading, writing, social studies, science, ESL reading, ESL writing, ESL speaking, and/or ESL listening.

Just like last year, we are planning many fun and amazing activities throughout the conference. Once again, we will be conducting a silent auction. If you were at the last conference, you know this is a wonderful and exciting activity. We are also working on bringing in top notch key-note speakers who have been successful at the national level. I’m looking forward to seeing you all at the conference next summer. With your help, it will be the best yet!

Upcoming PD Opportunities

ELL Instructional Resources workshop participants will gain a deeper understanding of TABE CLAS-E standards and how to use the TABE CLAS-E Survival Guide and the TABE CLAS-E Teacher’s Resource Guide, Volume 2. Various resources will be provided that align with TABE CLAS-E assessment. In addition, participants will learn how to adapt lessons and resources to further enhance students’ learning experiences. *The TABE CLAS-E Survival Guide is found on the DESE Professional Development page under Additional Information (Important Links). Also, please bring the TABE CLAS-E Teacher’s Resource Guide Volume 2 from your Adult Education program. (PD Hours: 6)

Workshop Date & Location: Friday, Jan. 24, 2020, 9AM to 4PM – St. Louis

Getting a Job, Keeping a Job (Incorporating Soft Skills in the Classroom): Many adult learners lack soft skills that have both handicapped them from connecting with employers and caused them to miss opportunities. This workshop will provide teachers with tools to help students become successful in the workplace. In addition, workshop participants will learn many activities and ideas to use in their classrooms.

(PD Hours: 4)

Workshop Dates & Locations:

*Friday, Nov. 22, 2019, 12PM to 4 PM – St. Louis City

*Thursday, Dec. 19, 2019, 12pm to 4pm—Don Bosco (Kansas City)

Reminder: These and other opportunities can be found on the DESE website under Adult Education.
Reading Vocabulary/Concepts from TABE 11/12

1) Students need to be able to differentiate between the following paragraph structures:
   a) Compares and contrasts several different ideas;
   b) Relates events in the order in which they occurred;
   c) Presents a problem and, then, a solution to solve it; or
   d) Identifies a cause and shows the effect it has on the subject.

2) Students need to be able to make inferences (Make connections, and draw conclusions about the text’s meaning and purpose) from a given text.

3) Students need to understand the point of view of the author of a given text. This can be in first, second, or third person (First person is the I/we perspective. Second person is the you perspective. Third person is the he/she/it/they perspective.)

Math Vocabulary/Concepts from TABE 11/12

It is important for students to understand the construction and parts of a box plot. Below is an example:

Given a list of numbers, the student should put them in chronological order and find the median. The upper quartile is the median of the upper half of numbers and the lower quartile is the median of the lower half. The lower extreme is the lowest number and the upper extreme is the highest number. Students should also know that they find the Interquartile Range by subtracting the lower quartile from the upper quartile. Not shown here is an outlier which is a number that has a value that is more than one and a half times the length of the box from either end of the box. In this case, the lower outlier would be any value less than 45 and the upper outlier would start with a value around 117. Outliers are represented by an * above the number line.
