

2022 MAACCE BREAKOUT SESSIONS

THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 2022

Session 7: 8:30 am – 9:30 am

Afterschool Programs Connecting with the Regular School Day

Join us to learn how afterschool programs can link their programming with the regular school day and also serve as a connection between the school and students' homes.

Presenters: Brad Lademann – Associate Director of Quality Initiatives, Missouri AfterSchool Network
Clint Darr – MASN MOARC Coordinator, Missouri AfterSchool Network

Categories: Afterschool

Cultural Competency

When educators fail to acknowledge their own biases and assumptions, the hindrance of a student's developmental process is inevitable. Having good intentions is not sufficient; the actions are what will be seen and felt by students. What one individual may perceive as innocent can have detrimental ramifications.

Presenter: Dr. Jacqueline Carter – Instructor, St Louis Public Schools

Categories: Adult Education – Teachers; Community Education

Human Trafficking Awareness to Action

(Extended Session – Sessions #7 & #8)

Human Trafficking is the business of stealing the freedom of females, males, children, and young people for profit, and it is happening in your neighborhood. Human Trafficking Awareness to Action is an educational presentation that will equip you with the knowledge to see the signs of and report human trafficking. This presentation will open your eyes to your scope of influence and responsibility as an educator, leader, and good human in the fight against this very real evil.

Presenters: April Rothweiler – Education Specialist, STOP Human Trafficking Coalition of Central Missouri
Richelle Douglas – Education Specialist, STOP Human Trafficking Coalition of Central Missouri

Categories: Adult Education – Directors, Teachers, ESL; Afterschool, Community Education

Math Survival Kit

Math can feel complicated for many adult learners. I will be sharing some of the methods that I teach my students to overcome their fear of many of the "hurdles" that slow them down. These include how to use acronyms like: King Henry Died Unexpectedly Drinking Chocolate Milk to convert metrics, Keep Change Flip for dividing fractions, and many others.

Presenter: Donna Good – Educator III, Chillicothe Correctional Center DOC

Categories: Adult Education – Teachers

Passion with Purpose: Do the Most Good

We all have passions, motivations, cultural dream worlds.... On the other side of that is reality! While it is easy to fall into regurgitated lessons and activities, and these can be effective, but can we honestly say they do the most good? Maybe we can help guide this ship from our very own wheelhouse!

Presenter: Steve Voyles - Teacher/Coach/After School Programs, Winona R-III School District

Categories: Afterschool, Community Education

Student Mental Health Taskforce

This presentation will highlight the work the Missouri Department of Higher Education and Workforce Development is doing in the mental health space.

Presenter: Jaron Vail - Program Specialist, Missouri Department of Higher Education and Workforce Development

Categories: Adult Education – Directors, Teachers, ESL; Afterschool, Community Education

Own It! Recognizing the Dynamics of Privilege and Oppression in the Classroom

In this presentation, participants will be introduced to foundational concepts of identity, privilege, and oppression. They will be guided in a brief exploration of their own identity and asked to reflect on the dynamics created in their classroom environments by different identities. We will also explore some tactics and practices to help foster more inclusive classroom environments.

Presenter: Brad Turnbull – ELL Instructor, Macon AEL

Categories: Adult Education – Directors, Teachers, ESL; Community Education

Session 8: 9:45 am – 10:45 am

Beyond The Binary: Fostering Gender Inclusive Classrooms

In this presentation, participants will explore key concepts of gender and learn more about identities outside of the traditional male and female. We will cover basic knowledge and discuss strategies that will help to foster a more inclusive classroom for transgender, non-binary, and gender nonconforming individuals. We will cover a broad range of information from pronouns to practices.

Show Me Essay Show Down

Due to slight changes in HiSET essay format, students, more than ever, need to "Show Me" the evidence to support their claims. While the 5-3 Plan or Near Perfect Essay has served our students well, it's time to "sweeten the deal" with some new essay planning devices (pneumonic devices). Resources will be provided to assist participants with essay preparation. Some old myths will be debunked, and we'll get our students on track to essay success.

Presenter: Stephony Hoppe – Academic Teacher III, Missouri Department of Corrections

Categories: Adult Education – Teachers, ESL

You Need a Hobby

In all the crazy of life, we must take time for rest and recharge. Research demonstrates the value of having and practicing a hobby. This workshop will challenge you to identify your hobby - a good practice for all humans. For afterschool professionals we will also explore how to engage others in sharing their hobbies with your students to develop a program that tops the charts in providing a broad array of enrichment activities for your students.

Presenter: Colleen Abbott – Director of Afterschool Services, Eldon IEAP
