  - see students in GED Manager (Student Search)
  - access student's score reports and create individualized study guides
  - create reports
  - be notified via Prep Connect that someone is interested in classes with your program
  - use GED Direct to assign tests (GED Ready – official practice tests and the official GED Exams) directly to students (no voucher codes!)
- It's imperative you provide all your site locations and keep them updated

Extended Response Scoring Tool

The GED Ready® Practice Test for language arts gives students a chance to practice their writing skills by completing an Extended Response (ER) question. This tool is designed to help you score and provide meaningful feedback to your students about their written response, located in their GED Ready Score Report.

Although this tool is complementary to the GED Ready Practice Test, it can be used with other practice questions in your classroom!

How to use this tool

This tool guides you in scoring your student's Extended Response based on three traits and provides feedback in a printable report.

1. Download the prompts and passages used in the GEDReady. As you read your student's response, you should be able to determine which one they were given.
2. Enter your student's name and test date (or date of response) to personalize their report.
3. For each trait, read your student's response and select the skill descriptors that best describe the response (you will read the response at least three times).
4. View the feedback report and print it to review with your student.

What the App includes: Study support, personalized pathways, AI Tutor (Math & Science), tracking progress and encouragement

The GED & Me App includes a lot of practice, and an opportunity to link a Kaplan book, to study alongside the Kaplan chapters (More publisher references are likely to be included in the future)

Recommendation

Start with GED Flash and Practice Tests while planning and exploring a future content strategy.

MLP

- Learners are most excited about access to practice questions. Consider including access to existing question sets to fill an immediate gap and capture Learner attention.
  - Explore a subscription model if Flash can't be offered free.
- Provide topic-based modules instead of weekly tasks to give learners the flexibility to study at their own pace.
- Within each module, give learners specific, actionable tasks.

FUTURE PRODUCT

- Identify how GED might offer a well-rounded selection of study material.
  - Start by providing follow-up recommendations about what to study to improve their score.
  - Provide a range of content formats and personalize what content is presented to each learner based on their learning preferences.

Participants were excited to try the GED Flash questions. Most expected these to be free, but were willing to pay if they proved to be helpful.

Resources

Educator flyer:

As an adult educator, you understand that preparing for the GED® test can be a challenging journey for many learners. The GED & Me™ mobile app, created by the makers of the GED test, is designed to simplify this process, offering learners an engaging, personalized, and accessible way to stay on track with their studies — anytime, anywhere.

What is the GED & Me app?

The GED & Me app helps independent learners prepare for the GED® faster, by helping them to build confidence and maintain motivation through guidance and encouragement. It combines study tools, progress tracking and custom notifications to support learners throughout their test prep journey.

- Personalized study plans
 Learners can create customized study plans based on their goals and available time. The app tracks study hours and helps build healthy study habits.
- Practice questions
 Learners can keep knowledge fresh in mind and reinforce key concepts with targeted practice questions designed to mirror the test.
- Integration with study materials
 Learners can integrate their app with print materials, such as the Kaplan GED® Prep book, to bring digital and print learning together.

HOW TO USE THE APP IN YOUR CLASSROOM

Lesson planning

Use the app to connect textbook content with digital lessons, creating a well-rounded curriculum aligned with the actual GED test. This ensures your students are studying relevant material while staying on track with your lessons.

Class warm-ups

Use the app's Question of the Day as a fun and engaging way to kick off lessons, spark discussions, and test knowledge on key concepts.

Digital literacy

The app supports test preparation and helps meet the digital literacy requirements within adult education programs. By encouraging students to use the app, you are providing them with essential tech skills for success.

Bridging the gap

The app provides direct access to content and tools from GED Testing Service, which ensures that resources are reliable and up to date.

Learner connection

Use the "Learner Like You" stories to encourage learners to share their own stories with each other and make connections in the classroom.

On the go

Advise learners to use the app for practice when they have a few minutes — to and from class, on the bus, or during a break. Even small amounts of study time can be tracked and add up to real progress.
